

The Fund

An actively managed ETF designed to unlock the still largely untapped potential of Italian SMEs. It invests in listed companies with a market capitalisation of less than EUR 1 billion, using the companies included in the "Intermonte Valore Italia" index as its reference universe.

Investment Philosophy

The investment process follows an active strategy based on bottom-up fundamental analysis, focusing on the universe of Italian small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with a market capitalisation of less than EUR 1 billion.

Its main objective is to identify small- and mid-cap companies across a range of sectors that stand out for their resilient business models, sustainable competitive advantages and clear long-term growth prospects, among the companies included in the "Intermonte Valore Italia" index.

In this assessment, the analysis focuses on key qualitative factors (e.g. backlog and revenue visibility, pricing power and brand strength), combined with sound governance and disciplined capital allocation.

This rigorous screening is complemented by an in-depth valuation analysis aimed at estimating the intrinsic value of each stock, so as to identify market pricing dislocations in a timely manner.

Fund Commentary

During the month, financial markets were affected by a renewed escalation in tensions in the Middle East, which supported oil prices and revived concerns over the potential inflationary impact. At the same time, concerns over sovereign debt sustainability returned to the forefront of investors' assessments, contributing to a rise in bond yields. This is a variable that we will continue to monitor closely, as a higher-for-longer interest rate environment could gradually weigh on the cost of capital and financing conditions, particularly for smaller companies.

The quarterly earnings season saw operating trends broadly in line with 1Q26. The market rewarded the confirmation of resilient business models and FY2026 guidance. Over the past month, 2026/27 EPS estimates for small-cap companies were revised upwards by 0.8%.

The three ETF holdings that delivered the strongest performance during the month were TXT e-Solutions, SYS-DAT and Tesmec. TXT once again ranked among the best performers in August, supported by continued investor interest in structural themes such as defence, aerospace, mission-critical software and AI. This was further reinforced by 2Q26 results, which highlighted robust revenue and EBITDA growth, as well as strong backlog visibility, further strengthening the stock's momentum. Tesmec also benefited significantly from a strong quarterly earnings release, with results well above expectations, highlighting an acceleration in growth, improved margins and a reduction in net debt, supported by a rapidly expanding order backlog. As for SYS-DAT, the stock benefited from the re-rating following the presentation of its new 2026-2028 strategic plan, which is particularly ambitious both in terms of organic growth and M&A.

Looking ahead to the coming months, we maintain a constructive view on the Italian equity market and continue to favour companies with strong pricing power, solid order backlogs, low leverage and strong cash generation, as well as exposure to structural growth trends.
